

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

12. Political Activities by Registrant
March 14, 1989 - September 13, 1989

The Government of the Cayman Islands

The registrant has communicated by telephone with officials of the U.S. Department of Justice regarding the status of the Cayman-U.S. Mutual Legal Assistance Treaty. Specifically, the registrant talked by telephone with John Harris, Attorney, and Drew Arena, Chief, of the Office of International Affairs in the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice.

Moscow Narodny Bank

The registrant has met with and has distributed an Executive Summary to officials of the U.S. Departments of Treasury, State and Commerce with respect to the unfreezing of assets of the foreign principal that are frozen in U.S. bank accounts. Specifically, the registrant met with Franklin J. Vargo, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Europe; Curtis W. Kamman, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State, Bureau of European and Canadian Affairs; the Honorable Salvatore R. Martoche, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Enforcement; and various unidentified staff persons who were also present. The registrant provided the Executive Summary to Franklin J. Vargo, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Europe, and understands that Mr. Vargo may have distributed the Executive Summary to other staff members.
